

Strategic Plan

Vision: Our vision for the future is simple and strong: Emerson College aspires to be the world's leading institution of higher education in the arts and communication, infused with liberal arts.

Objective: To realize our vision, we must establish Emerson as an intellectual and creative community in which teaching, learning, scholarship and creative work are accomplished at the highest possible levels and in ways that manifest our values.

How does your role help Emerson meet the five strategic goals?

Every one of us have job functions that cascade towards Emerson's strategic goals. Think about your job functions. How do they effect the goals of the team members around you? How does your work support the department as a whole? How does your role impact the work of your division?

Day 1 at Emerson: How do you see a connection between your job and one of the strategic goals?
